

G- voetbal
/pupillen
(kunstgras)

The image shows an aerial view of a sports complex. A diagrammatic overlay is present, consisting of four green rectangular fields arranged in a vertical line, a white diagonal strip to their right, and a small green square at the top left. Each green field has a circle in the center representing a goal. The white strip is labeled 'Bufferzone'. The green square at the top left is labeled 'G- voetbal /pupillen (kunstgras)'. The second field from the top is labeled 'Hoofdveld (gras)'. The third field is labeled 'Bijveld (kunstgras)'. The bottom-most field is labeled 'Optioneel bijveld (gras)'. The background is an aerial photograph showing a residential area with houses and trees to the left, a large green field to the right, and a wooded area at the bottom.
